Entered at the Shiner, Texas Post office as second-class matter.

It is now up to Governor Haskell to elucidate which we believe he will do.

HAILETSVILLE contributed $43 to the Bryan Campaign Fund and Moulton $20.00. What will Shi-ner's contribution be!

THE National Campaign is growing in interest, Haskell has resigned, Dupont has resigned and Foraker is down and out.

WHILE Hearst has no hope of accomplishing anything for his own party, he is doing some good by purifying both of the old parties.

W. J. BRYAN now charges that Taft is ashamed of his platform and would prefer Democratic doctrines, but won't acknowledge it.

BRYAN is still in the enemy's strongholds. He made twelve speeches in Columbus, Ohio, last Thursday and was greeted by large crowds.

COL. SIMPSON, Republican candidate for Governor, says he is not worried about the political outlook in the State, but is worried about his rice crop. Sensible.

THE anti-prohibition convention to be held at Houston on October 12th. is to be strictly non-partisan. Every anti is invited to attend, regardless of his politics.

THE Republicans are sure enough scared, when they have to call on the president to butt-in on the campaign. If Taft is defeating Roosevelt will take it much to heart.

THE National Campaign is getting decidedly warm since Hearst threw the fire brands into the two old parties and it has now got to be a general mix-up with Bryan still on top.

THE Republicans are getting into sore straits, and are put to it to find men who are above reproach. Senator Beveridge is the latest to be called upon to take the stump for Taft.

THE steel trust and other big mills and factories of the north have evidently received orders from the Republican campaign managers to resume work as a number of them will start up on October 1st.

THERE are hundreds of thousands of laborers all over the North who have been idle all this year and the dinner pail has been empty, but all of a sudden orders have been issued to resume work on October first.

WHO was responsible for the panic of 1907, the Republicans or the Democrats? Let the starving thousands of the northern mills and factories answer this and they will do so when the time comes to cast their ballots.

A NUMBER of persons in Shiner, who have been posing as Democrats and who voted in the primary of July 25th, have contributed to the Republican campaign fund. The GAZETTE would like to have the list for publication.

Carnes Building Comple- ed.

Yoakum, Texas, Sept. 25.—The two-story iron building of S. A. Carnes & Son has been completed and the firm moved into it yesterday. Messrs.
Carnes erected this building especially for use in their produce business, and have it arranged as conveniently as could be for this purpose.

Hunting Season.

Open season: Deer, November 1 to January 1, limit three bucks; Turkeys, December 1 to March 1, limit three turkeys; Quail, partridge and dove, November 1 to February 1, limit, 25 birds per day.

Komensky Doings.

[Received too late for last issue.] We have had a nice rain which we were looking for and needed.
Charley Wenske and E. Breitschopf attended the regular monthly meeting of the O. D. H. S. at Oak Grove Sunday.
Mrs. Winkler of near Breslau visited the family of F. Ullmann Saturday.
Sunday was a beautiful day and all who had rigs were out driving.
Emil Korges of Witting was seen in our community last Sunday. Wonder what attracts Emil.

Frank Brata bought a well-improved farm from Jno. Mladenska, the consideration being $30 per acre. This shows that there is some good land around Komensky.

Leap Year will soon have an end.
Girls, don't forget it. A certain young man in our community says he is going to stay at home for the girls worry him.

On Tuesday morning, Sept. 15, a beautiful rosy-cheeked baby boy arrived at the home of Frank Kubenka. Our congratulations are extended to the happy parents.

Mrs. Henry Pohler is the proud possessor of a brand new sewing machine since last Saturday.

Frank Kubenka ginned 450 bales up to last Wednesday evening. Mr. Kubenka says if he gins 600 bales this season he will give another free barbecue to all his customers.

Some farmers around here are busy gathering corn.

Ben Janssen and Emil Vogt paid a pleasant visit to F. Ullman's family last Sunday.

Rudolph Filip and Joe Heinrich were on our highways Sunday evening. Wonder what were their interests, as they are seen on our streets quite often.

Our school will commence on Oct. 5th, with Prof. F. K. Bueck and Miss Edna Ruhmann as teachers. The term will last eight months.

Joe Holik called on his best Sunday.

Henry Breitschopf and W. H. J. and Henry Wenske visited their friends, the Misses Halkenwaelder last Saturday and report a fine time.

Otto Pohler, Jno. and Joe Antrich were visiting in Witting last Sunday.

News is scarce this time, as it rained, so must ring off. Good-bye to all.
Rosemary.

Yoakum Items.

As I have a few minutes time I will write to the Gazette.

Today we had a fine rain in Yoakum, which was bad for the cotton. Some of the farmers are through with picking cotton and are ready to go to the San Antonio fair. If mamma will give me ten dollars I am sure going.

Frank Barosh, Jr., visited Jim Kral today.

Joe Vrazel of Yoakum had a visitor Sunday afternoon and had a lot of talking and laughing.

John Vrazel and sister of Dil-worth were in Shiner Sunday in church.

Miss Christiana Barosh of Big Hill visited her brother last Sunday.

Well I think I will quit for this time, bye bye, Happy Girl.

Dryer News.

Sept. 27.—It seems as if Jack Frost is going to put in his appearance.

John Boothe of near Hochheim was visiting the home of R. I.
Moore during the week.

Misses Nolia and Nellie Neighbors were visiting friends at Big Hill today.

DEKALB FENCE CO.,
DeKalb, Ill. Kansas City, Mo.

The traveling show that showed here Monday night was attended by a fair crowd.

Dr. Schulze of Shiner and Dr.
Blackwell of Hochheim made several professional calls here during the week.

Arthur and Edgar Fahrenthold of Falls City, arrived here Saturday on a visit to relatives.

Messrs. Fehrenkamp and Schuette of Shiner passed through our burg today.

A beautiful outing was enjoyed on the banks of the Guadalupe at the Hochheim river bridge Sunday evening. The time was spent in merry making and much laughter and a delicious lunch was served which was heartily enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Emil Gerdes and Miss Flora Herin are reported on the sick list, we wish for both a speedy recovery. BLONDE.

In 1896 the republicans spent $540, 000 more than the democrats have spent in national campaigns in the last forty-four years. And yet the republican spellbinders tell us that the people rule through the republican party. The democrats will win this fight if every man will fulfill his political duty intelligently.—Moulton Ka-gis.
